

SiB - GREAT LEADERS GOOD LEADERS Forum 2004, GDI, Zürich, October 1st 2nd. Main Speakers' Profile

Speakers: Surname Name (in order of appearance)	Photos	Quick Bios (see the Full-length biographies in the separate document)
Tideman Sander		SiB co-founder and chairman, Sander has been a banker with ABN AMRO Bank and Triodos Bank, working extensively in China, the Far East and India. He runs his own advisory company which focuses on growing sustainable enterprises. Co-initiator of Insight Partners , a new venture. He is involved in a number of non-profit boards, such as NCDO, the Dutch Sustainable Development Organization. Lawyer by profession with degrees from the Universities of Utrecht and London. Dutch .
Ferguson Andy		SiB co-founder, Andy is an investment banker and has been the driving force of SiB in the USA in 2002 and 2003. Extensive experience in the cooperatives' world internationally. Co-founder of Uplift Capital , a new venture fund. He has a B.A. in History and Environmental Studies from Oberlin College and later studied at Purdue University specializing in Agriculture. American , living in the USA.
Palazzi Marcello		SiB co-founder, Marcello is a business and social entrepreneur. Founded his own company in environmental technologies in his 20s and Progressio Foundation in his 30s. He currently runs Progressio next to his work for SiB and is involved in other ethical businesses and investment initiatives. Economist by profession with degrees from Buckingham, LSE, LBS (joint with Erasmus Rotterdam) and MIT Cambridge (diploma). Italian , living in the Netherlands.
Brantschen Niklaus		Co-founder of Lassalle Institut . Jesuit and Zen Master, public figure in Switzerland at the forefront of ethical leadership. Author and strong supporter of Spirit in Business globally. He is an experienced seminar leader, a much sought-after speaker, and an author whose books include "Du selbst bist die Welt" ("You are the World") and "Auf dem Weg des Zen. Als Christ Buddhist" ("On the Zen Path. A Christian Buddhist"). Swiss .
Gyger Pia		Co-founder of Lassalle Institut . Author, leader of religious communities, Zen Master. Together with Niklaus Brantschen, she has pioneered ethics in business in Switzerland and beyond. Swiss , living in Switzerland and working internationally. Author, whose books include "Die Erde ruft" ("The Earth Calls") and "Maria, Tochter der Erde, Königin des Alls" ("Mary, Daughter of Earth and Queen of the Universe").
Gauthier Alain		An SiB Steward, Alain has 30 years' experience as strategist and organizational developer. Formerly with McKinsey & Co, he has been running his own company Core Leadership from California and France. He is a founder and facilitator of SoL France, and a Steward of the Global SoL Network. He is a graduate from H.E.C. (Paris) and holds an M.B.A. from Stanford University. French , living in the USA.
Bütikofer Ruth		An independent Marketing Consultant, Ruth has pioneered a marketing approach which is authentic and of total integrity. Currently organizing seminars on this method. Having lived in South Africa, Italy, the UK, as well as Switzerland, Ruth has held a variety of positions in Marketing in different companies. She is a strong supporter of SiB. Swiss / Italian .
Cheshire Sue		Is a well-known national figure in the enterprise world in the UK, with a passion for supporting growing companies. She has run her own business in the leisure industry, developed enterprise skills in people with special needs. Since 1994 she became one of the first Business Link Chief Executives. Currently CEO of the Academy for Chief Executives . British . SiB Steward. Pioneer of Leaders' Quests (Executive Journeys) in India, China and South America.
Bredemeyer Sabine		Coach, consultant, facilitator and trainer to German and international companies, organizations and communities. Founder of Bredemeyer &amp; Friends . As a graduate of Heidelberg University (Linguistics/Philology/Law) she started her work in an international advertising agency in 1981. Multilingual in German, English, French, Russian and Spanish. German .
Weller Tony		Serial entrepreneur in the historic buildings' industry. Internationally acclaimed for his work on public buildings, such as the Royal Albert Hall, Blenheim Palace and Hampton Court. His early training and education was in art and design in the U.K. and Italy and he became one of Chelsea School of Arts youngest lecturers. For twenty years, Tony has also been active in leadership development, the last 2 years with the Academy for Chief Executives . British .
Grayson David		The Financial Times has described him as: "one of the UK's most respected voices on business social responsibility." For most of his career, however, he has been a social entrepreneur - starting and / or running a number of public-private-community partnerships. He is a former joint Managing-Director of Business in the Community and remains a part-time Director of Business in the Community . Began his career with Procter & Gamble. British , operating globally.

SiB - GREAT LEADERS GOOD LEADERS Forum 2004, GDI, Zürich, October 1st 2nd. Main Speakers' Profile

Pruzan		He has been the president of a successful, innovative international business. Among his more recent initiatives are co-founding The Institute of Social and Ethical Accountability in London (1996), the five year educational programme at the Copenhagen Business School : Philosophy & Economics (1996), the Business School's Centre for Corporate Values & Responsibility (2002), as well as the European Academy of Business in Society (2002). US-born, naturalized Dane . Prof. Emeritus.
Buckley		Principal Consultant and Founder of Communicore , to act as a thinking partner with organizations to address the foremost challenges of the new century. Clients include: Pacific Gas and Electric; Dupont; County of Santa Clara; Environmental Protection Agency; American Society on Aging, Grace Cathedral; The Rudolf Steiner Foundation; Electrical Distributors Association, the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America and the California Institute for Integral Studies. American .
Starcher		General Secretary – European Bahai Business Forum . Received a bachelor of Arts Degree, Magna Cum Laude, in Mathematics from Yale University, and a Master's Degree in Business Administration from Harvard Business School, with Distinction (Baker Scholar). After twenty years with McKinsey & Company, where he was a Senior Partner in the Paris and Milan offices, he founded his own management consulting practice. American , living in France.
Klein Klouwenberg		Founder of Turner , a Dutch Corporate Transformation & Development consultancy with 30 staff. Leading edge, radical and hands-on. Formerly with KPMG, KPMG Nolan, Norton & Co. Dutch .
Tigchelaar Mark		Economist with extensive experience in international business and consulting. He has worked for Shell Group Planning in London on strengthening strategic decision making. With Digital Equipment Corporation, he held positions as International Pricing Specialist and Account Manager for Higher Education. In his eight years with McKinsey & Co., Mark worked as a generalist consultant in virtually every industry. Currently founder and director of LEAP Company . Dutch .
Ganzevoort Wessel		Professor J. Wessel Ganzevoort joined KPMG in 1970 as a management consultant. He studied business administration, economics and social psychology. Since 1982 he served KPMG in various management positions: as chairman of the Dutch practice, as chairman of KPMG's European consulting activities and as deputy chairman for global consulting. Since 1998 he teaches organization dynamics and innovation at the University of Amsterdam . Dutch .
Mollner Terry		Founder, Chair, and Executive Director of Trusteeship Institute, Inc. , a think tank consulting firm founded in 1973 to focus on the development of socially responsible businesses, employee-owned cooperatives. He is a founder and member of the board of the Calvert Family of Socially Responsible Mutual Funds, the Calvert Foundation, and Spirit in Business, Inc. Recently, he established Trusteeship Capital, Inc. , an investment and merchant banking firm. American .
Barrett Richard		Richard works with corporate leaders and senior executives in North America, Europe and Australia to develop values-driven organizational cultures that build human capital, embrace diversity, strengthen financial performance, and support sustainable development ( CorpTools Inc. ). An internationally recognized keynote speaker on building values-driven organisations. Former Values Coordinator at the World Bank. Author of several best-selling books. British , living in the USA.
Little Judy		Principal of On Purpose Consulting , Gold Sponsor of the 2004 International Spirit at Work Awards. Judy is the leader of a talented group of consultants who work in the area of Purpose and Spirit and Lights on Coaching. Judy's education and background: BA and MA in Religion; MSW, in Clinical Consulting; 20 years as a Corporate Consultant, Senior Account Ex. for the Wilson Learning Corporation; former Corporate Training director of Levi Strauss & Company. American .
Kirpestein Jan Willem		Founding director Spirit, Heart &amp; Mind Corp. and working as an executive and corporate coach, co-ordinator, corporate mentor, lecturer, dialogue facilitator and advisor. Co-founder of the Encounter of Worldviews Foundation with Herman Wijffels, former chairman of Rabobank and chairman of the Dutch Social and Economic Council, in co-operation with Antony Burgmans, chairman of Unilever. He studied music, theology, philosophy and cultural and political history. Dutch .
Edelstein Debby		A graduate of Wits University and Wits Business School, she is a regular guest on national radio and television on topics ranging from women's leadership, work-life balance and creating a new world of work. The co-founder of QualityLife Company , Debby Edelstein is acquiring a reputation for launching communities to keep her company in her journey into the areas of personal transformation which she feels most drawn to at the time. South African .
MacCartney Tim (MAC)		Founder and Chairman of ' Pathways - Spirit in Business Ltd '. He never considered a career developing corporate leaders until, working as a gardener in a management training school, he realised that business holds the future of our sacred and fragile earth in its uncertain care. Twenty years later Pathways has established itself as a leading international consultancy in leadership, organisational transformation and corporate social responsibility. British .

SiB - GREAT LEADERS GOOD LEADERS Forum 2004, GDI, Zürich, October 1st 2nd. Main Speakers' Profile

Adnan Indra		Co-Director, with Pat Kane, of New Integrity think-tank and consultancy, working to “connect true self with unprecedented opportunity in a 21C networked world”. Indra trained as a journalist (Assoc Editor, World News Publications), moved into arts production during the 1980s (founding Taxi International Theatre Co, The Taplow Court Festival and working as European rep for Min-On Concert Association) and arrived at cultural consultancy in the mid 90s. British.
ten Kate Gijs		Gijs ten Kate is strategy director and managing partner at inc-21 , company branding and consultancy, a BBDO agency . He studied International Law at Leyden University. He was a theatre director for ten years, covering classical plays (Pinter, Tsjechov) and entertainment shows. He worked for several advertising agencies like Young and Rubicam and BBDO as a concept maker and strategist and was founder of BBDO Interactive. In 1999 a book with his poetry was published. Dutch.
Palazzi-van Hövell		Art historian by training, with an MA from the University of Utrecht. In her 20s, whilst in London, she abandoned the arts for development work, first at the British Council of Churches and later at Christian Aid, where she deepened her love of India. She had lived a year in Tamil Nadu prior to finishing her studies. In her teens, she was a successful classical dancer. In the last 10 years, she has become an accomplished Hata Yoga instructor . Mother of 3. Dutch.
Walleczek Miki		A successful entrepreneur already in his early twenties. At 33 he sold his sportswear company SPORTALM as market leader. For more than 20 years Michael has been engaged in Personal and Organisational Transformation. He is the founder of Walleczek &amp; Partners , an international consultancy specialising in mobilising the heart, mind and spirit of people at work to accomplish a culture transformation which allows for non-linear results. Austrian , working globally.
Jecklin Hans		Life-long enterpreneurial experience in business (Jecklin Music House) as well as in numerous cultural and social institutions; in parallel with an inner path, integrating and transcending eastern and western spiritual traditions. Today: Facilitation of individual and institutional processes of conscious-evolution: finding purpose and vision for practicing essential Being in daily life and work. Forum for Integral Business (Practice for the unfoldment of Consciousness). Swiss.
Peacock Eric		Serial entrepreneur and business executive with a variety of corporations. Eric has a keen knowledge of, and practical experience in International Development, having built his previous businesses with Sales and Manufacturing in over 80 countries. He has also lived in Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Canada, Belgium, France, Holland and Ireland whilst developing these businesses. Currently CEO of Exemplas , director of What If ? British.
Matser Fred		Chair, Fred Foundation and Inspirall Company . Before Fred Matser founded his first foundation in 1989, he worked from 1964 to 1980 in the family business Johan Matser estate development, of which nearly 10 years as chairman of the board. The 17 foundations founded or financed by him have supported many projects initiated by others in many countries including The Netherlands. Dutch.
Cuneo Federico		Director at Ernst &amp; Young Peru. He took up in May 2004 the presidency of Perú 2021, the principal not for profit organization promoting corporate social responsibility in Peru. He studied accounting at the Eastern Michigan University, with post-graduate studies at the University of Georgetown, ESAN and the University of Piura. He has worked for the Industrial Bank of Peru, BankBoston, the brewer Backus & Johnston and AGP Industries. Peruvian.
Guptara Prabhu		Executive Director, UBS Wolfsberg Centre . Professor at universities in the UK, the Netherlands and Switzerland. Brilliant thinker and chairperson, director of several companies in the UK and Switzerland, as well as non-profit organizations. Committed to India's welfare, his home country. Of Indian nationality.
Burger-Calderon Max		A graduate in economics from the University of St. Gallen and Harvard Business School (MBA). Max began his career at Dresdner Bank in Singapore and later joined the Boston Consulting Group (BCG) in Munich. He then managed the successful turnaround of a family-owned tobacco company. In 1986, he co-founded CFP-Corporate Finance Partners AG with Michael Hinderer in Zurich and co-founded the Munich and Madrid offices. CFP became a member of Apax Partners in 1989.
Gunzinger Toni		He has progressed from being an enthusiastic radio amateur, via an apprenticeship as a radio technician, the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology, a degree in electronics and a thesis about parallel processors right through to the peak of development. Today Professor Gunzinger is primarily CEO of Supercomputing Systems AG . His team took fourth place in the Gordon Bell competition with their high-performance parallel processor computer. Swiss.
Batstone David		It is a rare set of skills that enable David Batstone to be active as a business entrepreneur, professor and journalist. Batstone is the Executive Editor of Sojourners magazine, the leading voice at the crossroads of politics, business, spirituality and culture. Batstone was also a founding editor of Business 2.0 magazine and a contributor to The New York Times, Wired, The Chicago Tribune, Spin and The San Francisco Chronicle. Author. American.

SiB - GREAT LEADERS GOOD LEADERS Forum 2004, GDI, Zürich, October 1st 2nd. Main Speakers' Profile

Narayana Guruji		Executive Chairman of Excel Industries Limited , Chairman of Yash Papers Ltd., and Punjab Chemicals & Pharmaceuticals Limited and Alpha Drugs India Limited, Director of Aryan Paper Mills Pvt.Ltd., Laopala Ltd., Silverlight Nirlepware Industries Pvt.Ltd., Duraware Pvt.Ltd., and a mentor to Mahavir Group of Enterprises. He is also an honorary guide to several Medium and Small Scale Industries and voluntary organizations. Author of many books on education and philosophy. Indian.
Carriere Rolf		Rolf Carriere has worked with UNICEF and other UN agencies since 1971. He has directed UNICEF's nutrition programs in India and neighboring Bhutan, and has also worked in Indonesia, the Maldives, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Afghanistan, and Burma. He is currently director of GAIN, the Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition , in Geneva. Dutch , living in Switzerland.
Whitmore John		Sir John abandoned academic education to become a successful professional racing driver before owning and directing a large agribusiness, a Ford main dealership and an industrial design house. He sold up to research, study and promote the emerging psychologies in California, before returning to the UK to set up a tennis & ski school based on upon a new learning method called The Inner Game which redefined coaching. Performance Consultants is his main vehicle. British.
Butler Tom		GRI Equity. Tom has over 15 years' finance and management experience, including professional venture capital and entrepreneurship. His particular interest and expertise is in finance and sustainability. He started the Hong Kong Industrial Technology Centre, a technology incubator, and initiated Indosurya Securities' venture capital business. Education qualifications include MBA from IMD, BScEcon (Finance) Wharton School. British.
Knoepfel Ivo		Founding director of onValues Ltd. , the sustainability investment research and consulting company in Zurich. He advises private investors, foundations and institutional investors with a specific interest in sustainable and responsible investments. Ivo is also a director of responsAbility Social Investment Services Ltd., a financial adviser in emerging and developing countries investments, which recently launched one of the first commercial investment funds in microfinance. Swiss.
Anson Mike		Mike Anson is an entrepreneur and the owner and CEO of Leading Technologies Group , a Swiss high technology business start-up and management consulting company. Leading Technologies Group has implemented and managed the start-up of 17 companies and projects in Switzerland and Europe and founded 7 legal entities in its 17 years of operation. Currently living in Switzerland.
Glad Tatiana		"A sustainability practitioner and process facilitator, I am called to work that contributes to systemic, personal and life-affirming change - particularly in supporting change agents within organisations. Co-founder of Waterlution , www.waterlution.org, I am currently exploring ways to inspire a healthier relationship with our natural world". American , living in Switzerland.
Schmid Göldi Rita		Migros. Studium der Rechtswissenschaften, diverse Weiterbildungen zu HR Management, Organisationsentwicklung, systemische Struktur- und Organisationsaufstellungen. "Ich bin in des Stadtparlaments an meinem Wohnort und des Ethischen Rates der Alternativen Bank Schweiz (ABS). Als geschäfts-führende Partnerin von metalogikon erforsche ich Fragestellungen rund um Organisationslernen in einem herausfordernden und unternehmerischen Netzwerk". Swiss.
Rhule Jennifer		Is Head of Human Resources at Skandia and member of the executive management. She has been active at Skandia since 1997, most recently as head of leadership development for the group. Prior to joining the Skandia group, she has a long record of leadership experience in organizational and cultural development and human resources, including from Pepsico, Rank Xerox and Bank of America. Rhule will shortly move from Stockholm to London. American.
de Bruin Peter		Peter studeerde Civiele Techniek en Bedrijfskunde en werkte na zijn studie bij Esso. Peter is vrijwel sinds de oprichting bij Turner betrokken. Hij is een van de drie leden van de bureauleiding. Opdrachtgevers bij organisaties als AEGON, Amev, IB-Groep, Itho, Kluwer en Mn Services zijn nog altijd enthousiast over zijn bijdrage. Zijn ervaringsgebied is breed. Dutch.
Cummings Tom		Currently Head of Learning and OE, Global HR Centre of Expertise at Unilever , Tom is founder president of Leading Ventures BV, an independent consulting and management development firm. Prior to creating Leading Ventures, he was an academic at IMD International, Switzerland. He is currently an adjunct faculty member at INSEAD, Theseus Institute, and Nijenrode Business Schools. American , living in the Netherlands.
Ostoja Zawadzka Dorota		Graduated in Psychology and Business and Administration. Co- fonder of Pathways - People and Organization Consultancy - one of the highest range in Poland. She has been working with top teams of many multinational companies like Siemens, Unilever, GlaxoSmithKline in Poland, helping them to create an organization based on values. Polish.

SiB - GREAT LEADERS GOOD LEADERS Forum 2004, GDI, Zürich, October 1st 2nd. Main Speakers' Profile

Roell Syb		Currently operating for ODE Magazine, a Dutch international lifestyle magazine, in the USA, Syb was trained as a lawyer prior to joining Philips. A Steward of SiB, Syb co-founded the Foundation for Natural Leadership, following a life-changing executive journey in the wilderness in South Africa. Dutch, living in the USA.
Vissinga Sonja		An independent executive coach and consultant for 20 years for both profit and non profit organisations. Having worked for many years in different countries as a change agent and consultant in the area of Human resources, Outplacement and Leadership Development (e.g. for Shell in England and Australia) she has experienced the inner workings of corporate life with both its possibilities and its limitations. Dutch.
Franks Lynne		Lynne is one of the best-know public relations consultants in the world, a newspaper columnist, and a commentator on women's issues, sustainability, and consumer lifestyles. In the years since she began building her PR agency -- at her kitchen table -- she has advised and guided multinationals and non-profit organizations across the globe. Now leading the entrepreneurial revolution for and with women around the world through her companies SEED and GlobalFusion. British.
Britschgi Edgar C.		Chairman, Young &amp; Rubicam Holding, Switzerland. 25 years experience in marketing management and brand stewardship, he joined Y&amp;R in September 2002 to head the Swiss agency group Advico Young &amp; Rubicam. Having completed his studies in Switzerland, Germany and France he started his career in marketing consulting, then became EU Marketing Communications Director of a leading textile brand, working in Denmark, France, Germany, Italy, Spain and the U.K. Swiss.
Giraudi Enrico		Working in advertising since 1995 (Publicis, Foote Cone &amp; Belding and Saatchi &amp; Saatchi), he's strategic planner at J.WalterThompson Italy and founder of a JWT expert unit in corporate social responsibility initiatives (Ethico in JWT), such as charities, corporate volunteers programs, cause related marketing and communication of CSR activities. Board member, European Baha'i Business Forum. Italian.
Bird Heather		Heather Bird, founder of HB Health, is fast becoming one of Europe's leading health and beauty visionaries. Her clinic, HB Health of Harley Street, which incorporates the RejuvenAge Medical Clinic, focuses on revolutionary Internal Anti-Ageing Medicine and Preventative Health. She obtained a BA in philosophy and international relations before gaining an MBA. British.
Allan Malcolm		Is the founder of three companies: Inergy, which specializes in the creation of intellectual capital through creativity and innovation, Authentic Transformational Leadership, which enables individuals and groups to realize their leadership potential; and Placebrands. British, currently working in Amsterdam on assignment by the City Government to advise on the management and development of an entire new quarter, a giant public-private-civic partnership.
Reed Avril		For many years Avril offered spiritual and life coaching for executives under stress. Between 1986-2003 her company provided stress management seminars and the Self Mastery University TM in the USA, Europe and the Caribbean. Avril is Co Director of the Wisdom Leadership Initiative whose mission is to make visible the wisdom of women leaders by providing Womens Forums at business conferences and deep retreats for women leaders. American.
Franklin Carol		Worked for Swiss Re for 20 years, was CEO of WWF Switzerland for 3 years, now partner in "Vorausdenken", a company working towards an ethical business world. President of the Lassalle Institute. Swiss.
Chand Amber		Co-founder, eziba, a socially responsible multi-million dollar enterprise that directly contributes to the economic and cultural viability of artisans and communities worldwide. Prior to that, she was Director of the Museum Shop at the Williams College Museum of Art. Active in a number of women business networks and initiatives, such as Women's Business Council for Peace. Has appeared in a variety of media including CNN World News. Born in East Africa of Indian parentage.
Williams Birgitt		Birgitt Williams is an international management and organizational change consultant, keynote speaker and executive coach whose business focus is on engaging Spirit in business to create inspiring work environments. Birgitt is co-founder and president of Dalar International Consultancy and a partner in New Health Works and Bright Future Holdings LLC.
Schatz Gundula		(1971), Dipl.Ing., hat Lebensmittel- und Biotechnologie an der Universität für Bodenkultur Wien studiert. Nach Abschluss ihres Studiums nahm sie am Trainee-Programm der Industriellenvereinigung teil, im Rahmen dessen sie im Bundesministerium für Umwelt, Jugend und Familie sowie bei der Firma Tech Gate Vienna Wissenschafts- und Technologiepark GmbH arbeitete. Mitgründering, Waldzell Institut. Austrian.

SiB - GREAT LEADERS GOOD LEADERS Forum 2004, GDI, Zürich, October 1st 2nd. Main Speakers' Profile

Lenzo Amy		Currently run the design and communications company, Clear Light Communications, which provides websites, html newsletters and e-zines, online community &amp; event facilitation and other communication solutions for community-minded individuals and organizations world-wide. Her working background covers both the profit and non-profit worlds in the US, UK and France. American.
Kish Susan		Founder of First Tuesday Zürich. First Tuesday Zurich is an independent think-tank encouraging and supporting the creation of knowledge at the crossing of business, policy, technology and innovation. "We are experts in creating conversations and dialogue among key players in these fields, leveraging the power of different perspectives and experiences to develop new insights". Swiss.
Leithoff Susanne		Entrepreneur, founder of mediKolleg (Institut für ärztliche Fort- und Weiterbildung), the institute for medical and further training in 1998. Almost 10000 medics have attended our accredited training courses. It employs more than 250 lecturers throughout Germany. Our licensed retrainings vary from acupuncture to sonography to nutrition medicine or especial pain therapy. Professional education in business and administration, Health Economics and psychotherapy. German.
Bredemeyer Kaja		After her studies she worked as a consultant in an international advertising agency, for several big international clients such as Renault, Lancome and L'Oréal. In 1993, she started as a saleswoman in the biggest German private TV station for RTL, RTL II, Super RTL, VOX and n-tv and became one of the three sales managers of the company. Currently working in the international association Bredemeyer &amp; Friends. German.
Neal Craig		Heartland Institute, Inc. Founded in 1995 by Craig and his wife, Patricia, it creates Essential Conversations among individuals and within organizations to help bring about systemic change. 25 years of leadership in magazine publishing, marketing and management, incl. board positions at educational, business, community organizations. Served as a founding board member of Business for Social Responsibility. Has been Publisher of Utne Reader magazine. American.
Meurs Michiel		Currently acting as independent consultant for finance and strategy, Michiel abruptly terminated a 25 year career in business and banking when he resigned as Executive Board Member and CFO of Koninklijke Ahold in March 2003. Michiel was CFO at Ahold for 6 years and prior to this position he was Director of Business Development and Director of Finance at Ahold. Michiel also spent 15 years in banking with ABN Amro Bank. Dutch.
Boschee Jerr		Just named to the United States nonprofit sector's "Top 50 Power &amp; Influence" list by The Nonprofit Times. Has delivered master classes in social entrepreneurship in 41 states and 12 other countries. Co-founder of Peace Corps Encore!, an international NGO that sends former Peace Corps Volunteers and staff members back into service on short-term assignments. Former President and CEO of the National Center for Social Entrepreneurs. American.
Leewens Hans		Partner and Chairman of Van Ede Foundation, co-founder of Van Ede &amp; Partners, one of the most successful executive recruitment and training companies in the Netherlands; former President Director of Bass Belgium and of Unilever in a number of countries. Dutch.
Hindle Peter		Author and consultant, Fleishmann Hillard, as well as Minister in the Anglican Church. His final post prior to early retirement was World-wide Director of External Relations for the Fabric &amp; Home Care Global Business Unit ($12 bn. Sales) reporting to the President of the business. Peter has a 30-year track-record as a corporate executive who integrated heart and soul into P&amp;G, one of the world's leading corporations, with great success. British.
Fallowfield-Coopers Piers		Chairman, of the International Division of Oster Communications Inc., best known for its FutureSource real-time market data service and the Oster-Dow Jones News services. Piers is also Chairman of Itsmobile Dublin the worlds leading player in the mobile parking payment arena. He sits on the advisory board of Finlab Geneva and holds a number of non-executive positions. . Recently he formed Mind-Star Executive Development Ltd. British.
Jiang Niran		For &gt; 15 years, she has been at the forefront of achieving results and generating growth. Extensive experience in business turnarounds, strategic growth, brand building, marketing expansion and performance management. She led strategic planning and innovation development for high profile brands, including Raid, Shout, Windex, Ziploc, Coca-Cola Classic, diet Coke, Sprite, PowerAde, Mars and Uncle Ben's. Currently w. Performance Consultants. Native of Inner Mongolia.
Mack Bernhard		Dr. phil., Dipl.-Psych. und Lehrer für Technik, arbeitet seit 1972 als Coach, Trainer und Psychotherapeut. Promotion zur Handlungsforschung in der Gruppendynamik. Er berät und trainiert Unternehmen in den Bereichen Kommunikation, Persönlichkeits- und Teamentwicklung, erforscht die Auswirkungen von Beziehungsdynamiken und entwickelte die Methode der CoreDynamik, gründete und leitet das Institut in Freiburg/Bollschweil und Bremen. German.

SiB - GREAT LEADERS GOOD LEADERS Forum 2004, GDI, Zürich, October 1st 2nd. Main Speakers' Profile

Pietzner Cornelius		Treasurer, The General Anthroposophical Society , he was born from Irish/Austrian parents, Cornelius grew up in the U.S. from 1961 onwards. His father founded the first Camphill in that country. Pietzner returned to Camphill after his studies of sociology and law. In 2003, he launched an exciting learning programme for young entrepreneurs from around the world to study and practice business management integrating values, spirit and soul. American , living in Switzerland.
Glok In Liem		Author of Interdependent Economy: from political economy to spiritual economy . In her book she connects mainstream policies with better economic balance. New and better thinking for entrepreneurs and business operation are good and necessary. But to gain momentum and actually affect the mainstream, it is necessary to also have a macroeconomic policy that concords with our ideals and wishes. Of Chinese family, living in the Netherlands.
Foxhall Heather		Founder of the Rainbow Ark Foundation and The Global Wisdom Council , USA Heather synthesizes an extensive background in the media arts and the healing arts into the creation of the Rainbow Ark's Global Wisdom Council Trek- an ongoing series of televised international Wisdom Councils, broadcastings the voices of the new emerging "wisdom elders" that come from all cultures, disciplines and generations. American .
Piccot Claude		1943, Swiss , studies in physics and economics; MBA Insead. Classical career from assistant to CEO with activities on four continents for nearly 20 years turnaround of companies. Lecturing for the St. Gallen Management Institute and for the Boston Business School. Various board-memberships. Special interest in ethics and corporate governance.
Harpham Alan		An independent management consultant; focused on programme management, project management and executive coaching. He is the part-time Chairman of the APM Group , a consultancy specialising in the accreditation of practitioners, trainers and consultants (a project and programme management process respectively, both owned by the Office of Government Commerce). Alan was an early Director of Cranfield University's MSc in Project Management. British .
Wigglesworth Cindy		She has 20 years of experience in human resources management with ExxonMobil and 4 years as the Founder and President of Conscious Pursuits, Inc. She is currently the Chairperson for the 2004 International Spirit at Work Awards Selection Committee. Cindy has authored what may be the first competency-driven Spiritual Intelligence Assessment (SIA) instrument for business and personal use. Cindy Wigglesworth has a BA and MA from Duke University. American .
Kik Aad		Founder and Coordinator for Inspirational Programmes of the Geert Groote Institute, the center for identity and inspiration of Windesheim Professional University in Zwolle. His studies included Theology and Social Sciences, at seminaries in The Netherlands and Switzerland (Rüschlikon !) and the universities of Utrecht, Zürich (!) and Leyden. Aad has written several books and many articles in the fields of religious education, faith and human rights, spirituality and work. Dutch .
Franquemont Sharon		One of the pioneers who established a graduate program in intuition at John F. Kennedy University . For more than 25 years, she has taught individuals, couples, and organizations how to channel their intuitive powers for better health and communication. Author of the Do It Yourself Intuition Workbook ; and You Already Know What to Do . Has reached more than 100,000 people through university classes, TV and radio appearances, conference presentations and training. American .
Engvig Kristin		Founder of Women's International Networking (WIN) . Social Entrepreneur, she runs the Leadership Journey at W.I.N, managing the organization and developing the agenda of the global leadership forums. Degree in Business Administration from BI Oslo and a Masters degree from SDA Bocconi Business School Milan. 1st career was in Marketing and Customer Relations with Citibank and JP Morgan Milan and led the PR for the Norwegian Export Council in Japan. Norwegian .
Leutscher Peter Paul		Director Sales Risk Management Marsh in the Netherlands. Core competencies in Strategic risk assessment, Risk mitigation solutions, Emotional Intelligence, Marketing, Communications & Sales. Master degree Business Law at Erasmus University Rotterdam. Management Development Training at Business Centre of Excellence, De Baak Noordwijk / Sales & Marketing at Krauthammer International and CED. Dutch .
Truran Daniel		Leads the efforts of Humanica Social Ventures , sits on the board of Spirit in Business, is a member of the Governing Board of the European Baha'i Business Forum, National Secretary of the Italian chapter of EBBF; he is also a Director of Via3, and is engaged in the steering committee of Renaissance Europe. In his work he partners with a number of foundations such as Progressio, European Partners for the Environment. British/Italian .
Heini Daniel		Senior Legal Counsel at UBS & Chairman The Hunger Project (Switzerland). In Sept. 1999 he takes initiative to establish group of experts (chief and/or corporate compliance managers) of some of the major international financial institutions; under his leadership the group has grown and consists of representatives of HSBC, JP Morgan Chase, Deutsche Bank, Société Générale, Banco Santander, Lloyds TSB and Nordea Group. Swiss .

SiB - GREAT LEADERS GOOD LEADERS Forum 2004, GDI, Zürich, October 1st 2nd. Main Speakers' Profile

Enayati-Ettehadieh Sarvenas		Board member of the Two Wings Foundation , a private initiative to develop entrepreneurial solutions to delivering education and development in African, South American countries, India and elsewhere. Two Wings created a unique financial model, through the Austrian Partner Bank, which allows investors to utilize a portion of earned dividends to finance these projects. Sarvenas is a graduate in economics, following studies in Linz, Köln and Rotterdam. Austrian.
Furter Simon		Degree from the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich (ETH) in environmental engineering. Post graduate studies in economics and management at the Private University of Economics (PHW) in Zurich. 1998-2001: Quality + environmental manager at Georg Fischer . 2001- July 2004: Business consultant for E2 Management Consulting Inc. focussing on environmental and sustainability management, management systems and business ethics. Co-founder SiB Schweiz.
Kersten Marieke		Student of Professor Gilbert Lensen at Leiden University currently in the process of writing her final paper for the specialization 'Management & Organization' on spiritual-based leadership (SBL). Dutch.
Laszlo Andras		2004 President & CEO of EuroVisioning . 2004 European Partner of Tamas Consultants. 2003-2004 International MBA, at ENPC School of International Management, Paris on Spirituality and Business, a New Paradigm of Management for the 3rd Millennium. 1976-1982 Postgraduate Studies in Germany (Münster, Bonn, Marbach am Neckar: Philosophy/Philology/Sociology). 1976 M.A. in Germanic Philology (cum laude) at the KUL University Louvain, Belgium. Hungarian.
Elsen Dirk		Holds law degrees from Leiden University (The Netherlands) and the University of Georgia (USA). He is currently chairman of the executive board of directors of SNV Netherlands Development Organisation . Started his career in 1985 with the Royal Dutch Shell Group as Corporate Legal Council. In 1991 he joined the World Bank in Washington, D.C., as legal counsel for lending operations. Dutch.
H.H. The Dalai Lama (recorded)		His Holiness The 14th Dalai Lama, Tenzin Gyatso (1935), is the spiritual and temporal leader of the Tibetan people. He describes himself as a simple Buddhist monk. His message focuses on the importance of love, compassion and forgiveness. His Holiness has been a supporter of and inspirational resource for SiB since 1999 at the launch event "Compassion or Competition", organized by Sander Tideman and Marcello Palazzi in the Nieuwe Kerk, Amsterdam. Tibetan.
George Bill (recorded)		Former Chairman and CEO, Medtronic Inc. , the world's leading medical technology company. Serves on the boards of Goldman Sachs, Novartis, and Target Corporation, Harvard Business School, Minneapolis Institute of Arts, Carnegie Endowment. BSIE from Georgia Tech, MBA from Harvard University (Baker Scholar). Author of "Authentic Leadership"; speaker at SiB's April 2004 "Cultivating the Heart of Leadership" event at UC Irvine, with HH The Dalai Lama. American.
Kane Pat		PAT KANE is director of The Play Ethic , a cultural consultancy based in Glasgow, Scotland. Since its founding in October 2000, Pat Kane's clients have included Bartle Bogle Hegarty, Lowe Lintas, St.Luke's, Demos, Forum for the Future, the Design Council, Poiesis, The Strategic Futures Unit @ The Cabinet Office, International Futures Forum/BP, Scottish Executive/ADSW, and the International Society for the Performing Arts (ISPA). Scottish.
Benecke Patricia		Founder, Inspired Space . "Time to take a moment - for a space check. Look around. How do you actually like your office? How do you feel sitting at your desk, or moving about in your space? Energised? Motivated? Stressed? Exhausted? Are you picking up good - or bad - vibes in certain office areas? Might the space you are in have a thing or two to do with your stress levels and with the occasional head ache?" British.
Stern Elisabeth		Has a Master in Psychology and a Ph.D. in Cultural Anthropology from the University of California in San Diego. Worked for Ciba (now Novartis) on paradigm shift thinking and the change of cultural values, taught Political and Economic Anthropology at the University of Zurich and was a Research Associate at the University of Zimbabwe. Member of the leadership team at the Pestalozzi Children's Foundation in Trogen and gives trainings in Intercultural Management Competence. Swiss.
Dantes Consuela		Senior Vice President - Planters Development Bank , Makati City, the leading bank for small and medium enterprises in the Philippines. She holds a bachelor's degree in Economics with Honors from the University of the Philippines. She is also Group Head of the Support Services Group. She concurrently heads the bank's Human Resources Division. Philippines National.
Gamma Anna		Psychologist, PhD, member of the St. Katharina-Werk. She has worked in a leadership capacity at the Lassalle-Institut since it was founded in 1995. She has been a Zen student of Niklaus Brantschen's since 1988 and of Pia Gyger's since 1990. Anna Gamma received official authorization to teach Zen from both her teachers and got the Dharma name "Myoan" (light in darkness) in May 2003. An experienced seminar leader, sought-after speaker, and a fully-qualified Zen teacher. Swiss.